

2020
AUGUSTANA COLLEGE
CONFERRAL CEREMONY
SATURDAY, MAY 23 | 2 p.m.

We look forward to honoring the Class of 2020 at our in-person Commencement on Sunday, October 11, 2020. Until then, the original Commencement date of May 23 will be marked with this special virtual conferral ceremony hosted from Augustana College's campus.

| | |
|--|---|
| Opening music | By the Mighty Mississippi , Jack Rasley The Augustana Choir, Jon Hurty, conductor |
| Invocation | The Rev. Richard Priggie '74, campus chaplain |
| Welcoming remarks | Steven C. Bahls, president of the college |
| A message to the graduates | Dr. Millicent Knight '82, member of the Augustana College Board of Trustees, senior vice president at Essilor of America |
| Remarks on behalf of the graduating class | Courtney Baker '20, communication sciences and disorders, Palatine, Ill. |
| Degree conferral | Steven C. Bahls, president of the college Dr. Wendy Hilton-Morrow '94, provost and dean of the college |
| Closing music | Danse Bohème from "Carmen" – Georges Bizet Performed by: Sarah Lisak '20, flute , environmental studies and biology, Frankfort, Ill. Drew Webster '20, bassoon , physics and art history, Oswego, Ill. Dr. Charles Schmidt, piano , member of the Augustana music faculty |

At the conclusion, graduates' names will scroll on the screen. Names will not be read aloud; names will be announced at the in-person commencement ceremony, rescheduled for Sunday, October 11, 2020.

For 15 minutes in advance and for 15 minutes following, a looping video will run with submitted photos provided by the members of the Class of 2020.